LONDON, SEPTEMBER 22.—THE SILENCE OF THE BRITISH AUTHORITIES REGARDING NAVAL OPERATIONS IN THE NORTH SEA, WAS SUDDENLY BROKEN THIS AFTERNOON BY ANNOUNCEMENT OF A DISASTER TO THE BRITISH FLEET WHICH, ACCORDING TO OFFICIAL INFORMATION, HAS SUFFERED THE LOSS OF THREE ARMORED CRUISERS, SUNK BY GERMAN SUBMARINES. THE VICTIMS OF THIS BRILLIANT STROKE WERE THE PART OF THE GERMAN FLEET ARE THE CRESSY, THE ABOUKIR AND THE HOGUE, SIX SHIPS.
THE LOSS OF LIFE AMONG THE CREWS OF THESE THREE VESSELS PROBABLY WILL BE HEAVY, ALTHOUGH A CONSIDERABLE NUMBER OF MEN WERE PICKED UP BY THE CRUISER, LEWESTEFT, AND A DIVISION OF TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYERS AND SOME TRAWLERS. NEITHER THE TIME NOR THE SCENE OF THE DISASTER IS KNOWN IN THE OFFICIAL REPORT. THE BRITISH WARSHIPS, ABOUKIR, HOGUE AND CRESSY WERE SUNK IN THE NORTH SEA, ACCORDING TO ANNOUNCEMENT GIVEN OUT BY THE OFFICIAL BUREAU THIS AFTERNOON. CONTINUING, THE ANNOUNCEMENT SAYS THAT A CONSIDERABLE NUMBER OF THE CREWS OF THESE VESSELS WERE PICKED UP BY A DIVISION OF TORPEDO BOAT DESTROYERS. TRAWLERS AND OTHER BOATS ALSO AIDED IN THE WORK OF RESCUE.
THE ABOUKIR WAS TORPEDOED BY A GERMAN SUBMARINE. THE HOGUE AND CRESSY WERE IN CLOSE TO HER AND WERE STANDING BY TO SAVE

HER CREW WHEN THEY ALSO WERE TORPEDOED.

The warships Aboukir, Hogue and Cressy are cruisers of the same type. Their tonnage, armament, etc., are identical. These vessels had a displacement of 12,000 tons, were 440 feet long, 69 1/2 feet wide and drew 26 feet of water. Each one had a complement of 775 men including officers and crew.

London, Sept. 22.—The dearth of official news this morning from the long battle front in the western arena of the war has raised the usual crop of rumors.

These attract interest and, in the minds of some people, are important from the fact that, originating simultaneously at widely distant points, they seem more or less to confirm each other. The unsubstantiated report from Antwerp, to the effect that General Von Kluck, the commander of the German right wing, has removed his headquarters back to Mons, completes these rumors.

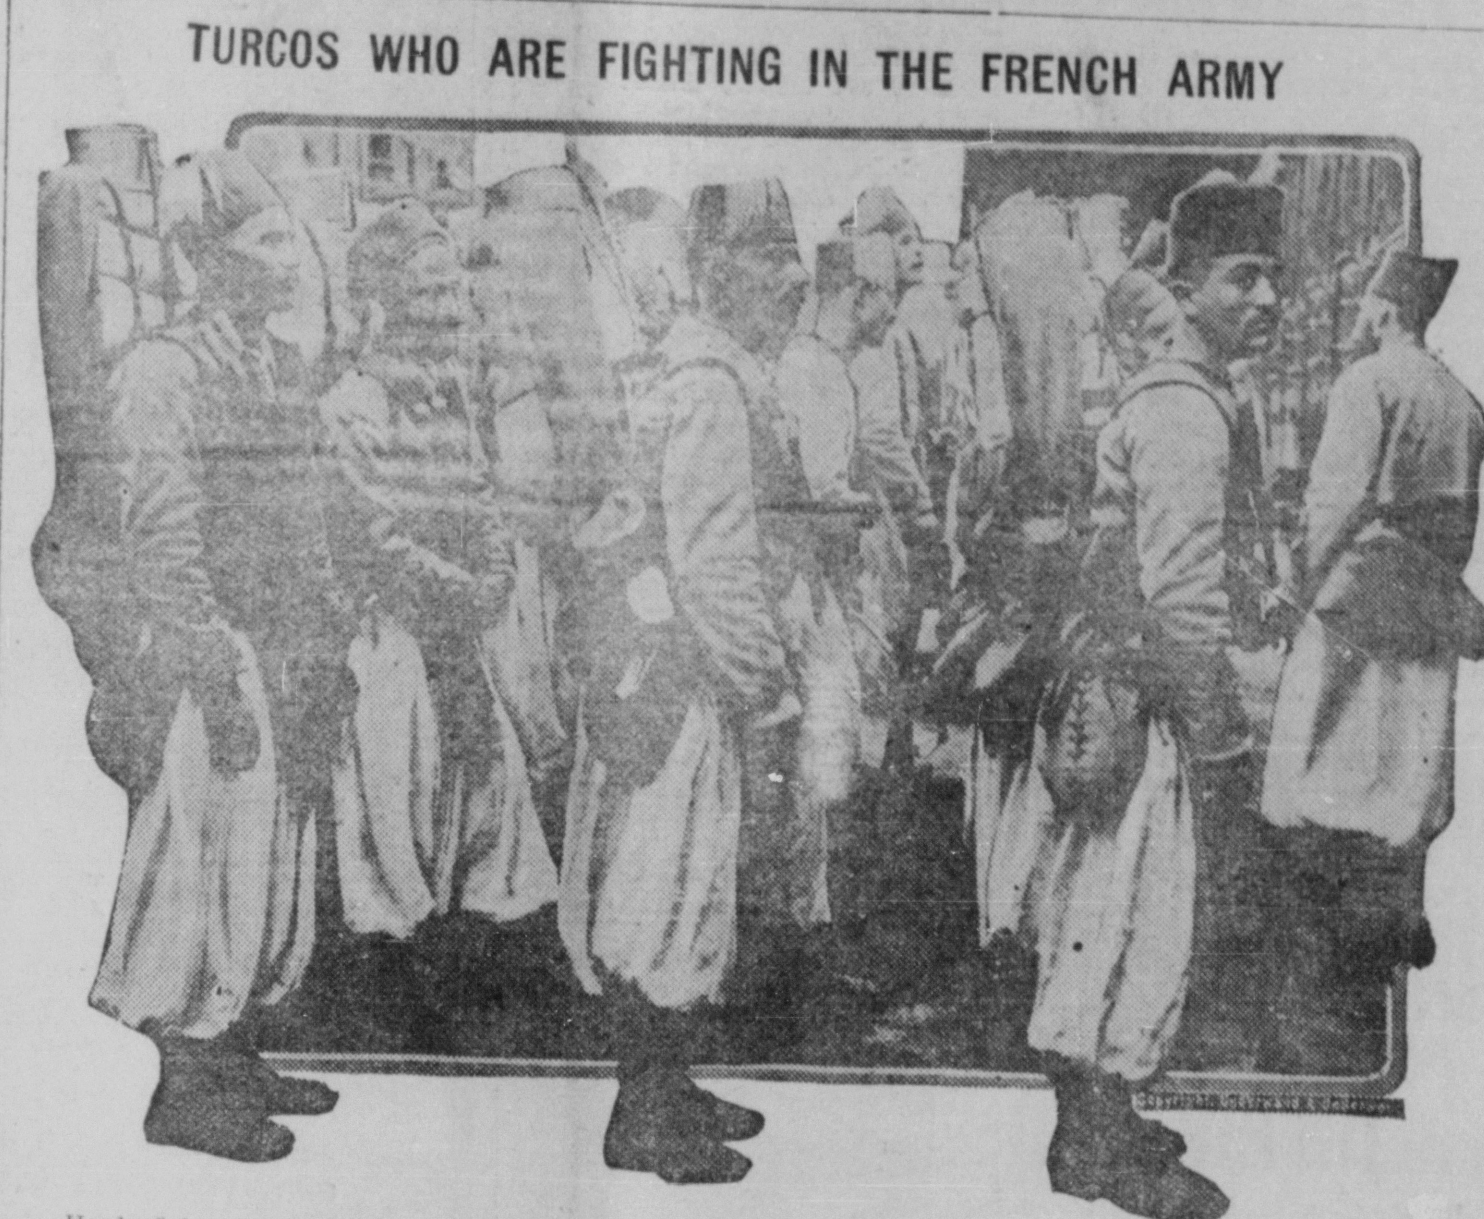

The latest official communication from Paris, even more laconic than usual, declares that the allies are making progress between Rheims and the Argonne, although the fighting during the daytime yesterday was less violent.

A wounded British officer, who has returned to Paris from the front, has supplemented the official news with the declaration that the allies, on their left, have advanced seven miles.

Berlin, however, reports that the German counter attacks about Rheims have resulted in their capture of the strong hill positions at Craonne, northwest of Rheims, and the occupation of the village of Betheny, three miles north of the French city.

Berlin claims also a successful attack on the line of forts south of Verdun, defended by eight French army corps, as a result of which, German troops have crossed the east border in the direction of Lorraine.

The devoted city of Rheims may be razed to the ground, it is felt in London; not because in itself it has any strategic importance, but because it happens to be in the way of the operations directed against the plateau above the city, where the Allies undoubtedly will endeavor again to disprove, as did Napoleon, the theory of Blucher, that these heights are impregnable, even if defended by only 25,000 men.

Belgian stories continue from the shelter of Antwerp but neither the Belgians nor the Germans have brought about any real change in their relative positions in this district.

From Petrograd comes stories of the continued flight of the broken Austrian armies in Galicia, while at the same time Vienna declares that these armies are reorganizing for offensive action.

It would seem clear, however, that only Przemyśl is today standing out against the total occupation of Galicia by Russia.

That the Austrian army was not so badly demoralized and disorganized as at first reported, is indicated by the admission from Petrograd of the determined nature of the four days' assault which preceded the capture of Lemberg.

All eyes are now fixed on the western section of the great battle line in France, where the allied army is expected to defend, on the German right, which already is bending backwards under persistent pressure, to the north of the river Aisne. If these German positions are once carried, strategists here believe the whole German front will be in danger.

FRENCH REPULSE GERMAN ATTACKS

By Associated Press.

Paris, Sept. 22.—The following official announcement was made in Paris today: "Along the entire front from the Oise to the Woëvre, the Germans manifested yesterday, September 21, a certain activity, without, however, obtaining appreciable results."

"First, on our right wing, on the right bank of the river Oise, the Germans were obliged to yield ground before the French attacks. Between the Oise and the Aisne the situation remains unchanged. The enemy has not delivered any serious attacks, contenting itself yesterday, Monday, evening, with a continued cannonading."

"Second, on the center, between Rheims and Souain, the enemy attempted an offensive movement which was repulsed."

"Between the Argonne and the river Meuse there have been no changes. In the Woëvre district the enemy made a violent effort. He attacked the heights of the Meuse, without, however, succeeding in gaining a position on these heights. On our right wing, in Lorraine, the enemy has again passed the frontier using, in this operation a number of small columns. Donestre, to the south of Blamont, has been re-occupied by the enemy. During the days of September 20 and 21 we captured 20 automobiles, used in moving provisions, together with all the men attached to them."

ZANZIBAR BATTLE ENGLISH DEFEAT

By Associated Press.

Capetown, Union of South Africa, September 22.—Further details have been obtained here of the naval action in the Harbor of Zanzibar last Sunday morning when the British cruiser, Pegasus, under command of Captain John A. English, was attacked and put out of action by the German cruiser Koenigsberg.

It seems that the Koenigsberg approached Zanzibar harbor at full speed at 5 a. m., Sunday. She disabled a patrol boat with three shots and then opened fire on the Pegasus. Her shooting was very accurate.

in progress for several days near Krupani, on the Drina river, has, according to official announcement made today, ended in complete disaster for the Austrian army. The announcement declared that 160,000 Austrian troops were engaged in this encounter, while the Serbian forces included various bodies of men who had been concentrated along the Drina, reinforced by troops hastily recalled from Semlin and Slavonia. The fighting was very sanguinary. The Austrian attempt on Shabats was repulsed with heavy loss.

CRYING OVER SPILLED MILK

Washington, September 22.—The German Embassy today received the following wireless from Berlin:

"Headquarters reports, September 21, that the attack against the French-English army makes progress. Rheims lies in the French battle line and we regret being forced to answer their fire. The city suffers but orders have been given to spare the cathedral."

The Pegasus replied with all her guns but her artillery was disabled in fifteen minutes. When her fire ceased there came a lull of five minutes, after which the Koenigsberg again opened fire for another quarter of an hour. The Pegasus was unable to reply.

Nearly all the casualties on board the British ship occurred around her guns and on her upper deck. She was badly injured on the water line and listed heavily. Her flag was shot away twice, but each time it was raised again and held up by her marines. Apparently little damage was sustained by the German ship.

SEARCHING MOUNTAINS ON PACIFIC

Washington, September 22.—On complaint of the British Embassy, the Department of Agriculture has begun search for a mysterious wireless plant supposed to be operating in the mountains on the Pacific coast. Information furnished to the department is vague but apparently the plant is busily engaged in sending messaged uncensored by the Federal government. Forest rangers who patrol the mountains are understood to have received orders to look for the wireless outfit.

Washington, September 22.—The report that a wireless plant was in operation somewhere in the Puget Sound country, and was communicating with the German cruiser, Leipzig, originated in British Columbia, a month ago. It was reported further that steamers leaving Seattle with coal were planning delivery to the Leipzig at sea. Investigations by United States naval officers proved that the coal was for legitimate destination and that there was no wireless plant conveying unlawful messages.

NOT MAKING PREDICTIONS

Washington, September 22.—The victory of the Senate filibusters against the River and Harbor bill bore fruit speedily today when the Commerce Committee formally reported a room measure providing for $20,000,000 to be spent by the army engineers. No prolonged discussion was expected in the Senate, but how the House would receive the reduction of nearly $35,000,000 could not be predicted.

WAR REVENUE BILL REPORTED

Washington, September 22.—The Administration War Revenue bill was formally reported out of the Ways and Means Committee today with all the Democrats voting in its favor and all the Republicans in opposition. The tax of 2 cents a gallon on gasoline was extended to cover "motor spirits." The Rules Committee will meet tomorrow to report a special rule for expeditions consideration of the bill. A tentative agreement was reached with Republican leaders for a vote at 4 p. m. Friday.

BERLIN CLAIMS SUCCESSES

Official Statement Declares Attack Against the French Troops Has Progressed and That the Germans Have Advanced at Several Points. Army Under Crown Prince Begins Attack on Forts at Verdun—Tenth Day of the Battle of the Aisne.

BULLETIN.

Berlin, Sept. 22.—(Via London.)—An official communication on the course of the battle around Rheims, says: "The strong hilly positions at Craonne have been captured. Advancing on Rheims our troops occupied the village of Bethany. We are attacking the strong forts on the line south of Verdun and the Germans have crossed the east border in the direction of Lorraine, which is defended by eight French army corps. A sortie from the north-east of Verdun has been repulsed."

Paris, Sept. 22.—One result of the great battle of the Aisne places General Von Kluck, commanding the German right wing, in peril of envelopment. British and French have struggled forward at awful cost to the heights of Lassigny, thus endangering the extreme German right.

East of Rheims, in the center of the battle, the allies are breaching the German line and have driven the Germans from strong positions. The emperor's troops are receding on the plains of Chalons, stubbornly fighting, but constantly driven. The retreat in the center adds to the danger of Von Kluck's army and indicates necessity for a general withdrawal to a new line of defense.

Rainstorms and inclement weather have slackened battle fury at the east of the line, where the Grand Duke of Wurttemberg and Crown Prince Frederick William are struggling to hold positions.

The allies, according to the official communique, have gained an advantage along the battle front from Rheims to the Argonne forest. The French report the capture of three towns on the western side of Argonne and also of the heights of Lassigny, west of Noyon and to the right of the German line. There were severe engagements to the east of the Oise and north of the Aisne. Along this part of the line the Germans displayed renewed activity and many attacks resulted in bayonet charges.

German Version.

An official report from Berlin says that the army under the command of the crown prince began an attack on the forts at Verdun. The statement said that the German attack against British and French troops has progressed and that the Germans have gone forward at several points. The statement also reiterates previous expressions of regret at the necessity for the bombardment of Rheims. The war office declares that the German artillery has proved its superiority over that of the allies.

The Germans, according to their own official report, have been strongly reinforced both on their right, where General Von Kluck is making such a stubborn stand in almost impregnable positions on the hills north of Aisne, and in the center, where the Germans are making almost superhuman efforts to recapture Rheims.

The German emperor has taken up his quarters in Luxembourg. Thousands of troops are stationed around the legation where he resides. To guard against possible raids by French aviators, a squadron of aeroplanes is in constant readiness to beat off attacks.

According to a Copenhagen dispatch the German fleet in the Baltic has defeated a Russian squadron. The battle is said to have taken place east of Kolberg and a number of Russian ships are reported to have arrived at Helsingfors.

The Turkish fleet is coaling at Constantinople, according to a reliable report received here, and will be ready to move within 48 hours if the port decides to side with Germany.

OVER BILLION DOLLARS FOR GERMAN WAR

Berlin, Sept. 22.—(By Wireless via Sayville, L. I.)—Brilliant success has been met in the raising of a war loan by subscriptions to imperial bonds and treasury certificates. Up to the present time 4,250,000,000 marks ($1,650,000,000) has been raised. With a number of reports still out the total subscriptions to the imperial loan have already reached 2,940,000,000 marks. Treasury certificates to the amount of 1,000,000,000 marks were offered and this has been oversubscribed by 20,000,000.

The newspapers are proud that this result should be reached without foreign subscription or the sending of blanks to many well-to-do Germans now in the field. On account of the unexpected success the final terms of payment have been postponed until December. One newspaper terms the success as a "victory of those at the river Somme."

FRENCH PROTEST

Washington, Sept. 22.—Ambassador Jusserand delivered to Acting Secretary of State Lansing a copy of a message from his government solemnly protesting against the destruction of Rheims by German artillery.

POPE AROUSED

Rome, Sept. 22.—When informed of the destruction of the cathedral of Rheims, Pope Benedict XV. said he "could not believe it possible in such a civilized epoch as the twentieth century to be plunged back to the time of Attila." The pontiff requested Cardinal Ferrata to request Cardinal Amette, archbishop of Paris, for full particulars, as telegrams for Rheims are not accepted.

WOMAN ATTACKED

Columbus, Sept. 22.—While walking through a vacant lot at Cleveland and Fifth avenues, Mrs. Ida Hollihan, twenty-two, and Lawrence Avery, twenty-six, a soldier at the United States barracks, were attacked by two negroes, who, after knocking Avery unconscious, criminally attacked Mrs. Hollihan.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS

TO QUIT VERA CRUZ WITHIN A FORTNIGHT

Only American Refugees Will Be Cared For.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Plans for the evacuation of Vera Cruz were completed at a conference between President Wilson and Secretary Garrison. The latter sent word to General Funston that as soon as the state department could adjust certain questions which had arisen over the payment of funds collected at the customs house and American refugees cared for a date would be fixed for the departure of the troops.

Secretary Garrison expressed the opinion that the troops probably would be able to get away within a fortnight or so. The secretary made it clear that the American government would not undertake to care for any of the refugees in Vera Cruz except Americans. Church organizations of other countries, it is presumed, will pay for the transportation of the others, unless foreign governments request relief. General Funston estimates that besides the 300 so called religious refugees there are 1,000 others who desire to leave before the evacuation begins.

What It All Means

One of the very best indications that the people of this nation are enjoying an era of prosperity and are not, as the gloomy pessimist would have us believe, in the throes of a paralyzing financial depression, is to be found in the fact that our schools and colleges and universities show a substantial increase in enrollment over the previous school year.

Of course the increase in the enrollment in the common schools may be readily and plausibly accounted for on the basis of the increase in population, but the increase shown in the enrollment of students in the colleges and universities cannot be accounted for and explained away by the pessimist on any such ground.

This increase in the attendance of boys and girls at the colleges and universities is conclusive of the existence of these wholesome conditions:

That the fathers and mothers of the land are able to spare the boys and girls from the work-a-day-world; that their services in the fight for the things material necessary to the family existence may be dispensed with; that the fathers and mothers have accumulated enough of this world's goods and are able to earn enough by their daily toil no matter what the field, to send the boys and girls to college, clothe and feed them while they are striving to obtain a higher education.

It means also that the people—both the parents and the children—are appreciative of the advantages which come to the possessor of a trained mind and a fully developed intellect. It means that the people have realized the advantages to be obtained from the educational facilities of the land and are joining in the demand for a betterment of school conditions and in doing so giving a negative answer to those who are opposing the enactment and enforcement of laws which make for higher efficiency in the school systems all over the land—both common and collegiate.

But best of all and supreme to all other indications which these conditions carry it means that not only is the demand for a higher and better citizenship realized but that practical steps to bring about a better equipped citizenship are being taken and that the hopes and the desires of the present generation will be fulfilled in the next generation.

A higher and better citizenship must and will carry with it the greatest measure of progress in this great world of ours and to the nation whose people possess the highest standard of intellectual development carrying with it that higher moral development which goes hand in hand with mental development will come the greatest prosperity in the great era of peace which must succeed the present awful war of nations.

The people of this land have much of promise to be thankful for in the splendid increase in school enrollment. It's significance cannot be underestimated. Education is a building of the foundation of a nation and a race, and the people of this nation are at work on that foundation.

We of this age should be thankful that we have the material to work with, the inclination to do the work and the prosperity which permits us to do that great work.

Poetry For Today

BRIERWOOD.
You have lit the night with many a song,
You have solved some problems too hard for me;
You have shortened the way when it seemed so long,
You have been as true as a friend could be.
You have helped me to know when the spring came back,
Its infinite wonder and sweet surprise;
You have helped in winters of storm and rack
To find gold stars in the still blue skies.
You have given me counsel I could not win
By bribe or purchase on this green earth;
You have thrown much light on my wayward sin,
You have brought much beauty and quiet mirth.
You have given me strength when the fight seemed hard,
You have given me joy when the way seemed dark;
You have healed me of many a wound and shard,
You have been my arrarat and my Ark.
You have brought me visions of beautiful things,
And brightened my heart with a fuller hope;
You have taught me to open and lift my wings,
You have helped me to rise when I thought to grope.
And you've never asked anything, nothing at all,
Quiet, contented—old friend, so ripe!
And I sing you a song with my whole heart's thrill,
And God be praised for my brier-wood pipe!

RUSSIAN CROWDS CRACOW

Capture Town Thirty Miles West Of Przemyśl

PURSUE AUSTRIAN ARMIES

St. Petersburg Claims Also That the Germans in East Prussia Are Being Pushed Back — Austrian Government Denies Its Position Is Grave, Claiming Its Battle Line Was Never Stronger.

London, Sept. 22.—Russian cavalry captured the town of Dubiecko, on the San river, took hundreds of prisoners, several batteries of artillery and wagonloads of ammunition and supplies.

Dubiecko is thirty miles west of the invested fortress of Przemyśl and marks the farthest advance of the Russian center against Cracow. Already the Russians hold Sinawa, north of Jaroslaw, and Rzeszow, to the west, while their occupation of Sambor, southeast of Przemyśl, assured them the district to cut off Austrian reinforcements.

St. Petersburg asserts that the Russian armies, while pursuing and breaking up the widely scattered Austrian armies under Generals Von Auffenberg, Dankl and Archduke Charles Francis Joseph, have invested the whole fortified line from Przemyśl to Jaroslaw and have not halted the march toward Cracow. Sufficient Russian troops, with siege guns, have been left to bombard or storm the Przemyśl and Jaroslaw fortresses, admittedly very strong, but the main armies have swung around the fortified line and are advancing by two lines of railway toward Cracow.

Russians claim that the Germans in East Prussia are being pushed back by General Rennenkampf and that the German forces who were invading Russian Poland have had to retire to escape the peril of the Russian advance in northwest Galicia.

The Austrian government refuses to concede that the situation is grave. An official statement by the war office in Vienna says: "Our battle line in Galicia has never been stronger. The new battle line from Przemyśl to Cracow is engaged. For strategic reasons our forces have retreated slightly along this line in order to occupy stronger positions. The city of Jaroslaw was fired on leaving it."

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Tonsillitis.

Tonsillitis is an acute inflammation of the tonsils, accompanied by pain, chills, fever and headache. It is very contagious. It is sometimes an early symptom of scarlet fever, diphtheria or septic sore throat, and it is the first stage in an attack of quinsy. Repeat attacks of tonsillitis make it advisable to remove the tonsils, since rheumatism often follows tonsillitis, and there are a good many cases of heart disease that can be traced to a severe tonsillitis or to the rheumatism that followed it.

All cases of sore throat should be isolated, for they may be caused by scarlet fever, diphtheria, or some other serious infectious disease. For the same reasons a physician should be called at once, so that he can determine the source of the trouble and, if necessary, begin the early treatment that is so important in diphtheria.

Report all cases of tonsillitis to the local health officer with information concerning the source of the milk supply of the family. That is of importance, because numerous epidemics of diphtheria, scarlet fever and septic sore throat have been spread through milk that has been infected in the dairy.

DESTRUCTION INTENTIONAL

Paris, Sept. 22.—Feelings of the deepest indignation are expressed here over the destruction of the cathedral at Rheims. These feelings are shared by everyone in France. It is unlikely that any of the precious contents of the cathedral were saved. It was particularly rich in tapestries and gobelins, including some which showed the history of Clovis, the history of the Virgin, Jesus Among the Doctors and the Marriage of Cana.

A dispatch from Chalons says that the walls of the cathedral remain standing. The town hall, the museum and hospitals, as well as the principal office buildings adjoining, have been for the most part destroyed. It has been proved, it is claimed, that the fire of the German artillery was intentionally directed at the church buildings and monuments of the town. Several inhabitants were killed, including the deputy mayor.

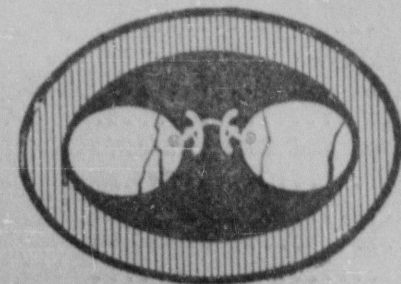

What Bobwhite Eats.

Fifteen per cent of the food of the bobwhite is composed of insects, including several of the most serious pests of agriculture. Half of its food consists of weed seeds, one-fourth of grain and about one-sixteenth of wild fruits. Taken in all the bobwhite is very useful to the farmer, and while it may not be necessary to remove it from the list of game birds every farmer should see that his own farm is not depleted by sportsmen.

Play Cricket With Country's Existence at Stake

By Field Marshal EARL ROBERTS, Addressing Regiment London Business Men

YOU ARE THE PICK OF THE NATION'S HIGHLY EDUCATED BUSINESS MEN. YOU FOLLOW VARIOUS PROFESSIONS, AND YOU ARE DOING EXACTLY WHAT ALL ABLE-BODIED MEN IN THE KINGDOM SHOULD DO, NO MATTER WHAT THEIR RANK OR STATION IN LIFE. MY FEELING TOWARD YOU IS ONE OF INTENSE ADMIRATION. HOW DIFFERENT IS YOUR ACTION TO THAT OF THE MEN WHO CAN STILL GO ON PLAYING CRICKET AND FOOTBALL AS IF THE VERY EXISTENCE OF THE COUNTRY WERE NOT AT STAKE.

We are engaged in a life and death struggle and you are showing your determination to do your duty as soldiers and by all the means in your power to bring this war—a WAR FORCED ON US BY AN AMBITIOUS AND UNSCRUPULOUS NATION—to a successful result.

Student Military Instruction Camps Good Proposition

By Major General LEONARD WOOD, U. S. A.

THE result sought by student military instruction camps is not militarism, but to make provision in some degree to meet a VITAL NEED CONFRONTING US AS A WARLIKE BUT UNMILITARY PEOPLE desiring peace, to the end that peace and prosperity may be preserved THROUGH THE ONLY SAFE PRECAUTION—more thorough preparation and equipment to resist any effort to break such peace.

THE IDEA OF THESE CAMPS HAS BEEN RECEIVED WITH MOST GRATIFYING ENTHUSIASM NOT ONLY BY THE STUDENTS AND THEIR PARENTS, BUT BY THE LEADING EDUCATIONAL AUTHORITIES.

I recommend the cordial support of the department and of congress of the students' military instruction camps and that a LIMITED AMOUNT OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT BE GIVEN THEM.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF THE HUMANE SOCIETY

The Humane society held an important meeting Monday night, and aroused by a number of pitiful cases which have been brought to its attention, decided to inaugurate a campaign throughout the county—a campaign which will increase both the membership and the efficiency of the work.

The society is convinced that there is tremendous opportunity for such an organization in our midst. That there is need of work in this community far beyond anything deemed possible was given conclusive proof in the following:

Report of Humane Officer Gooderill up to March 1st, 1914:

Number of complaints about animals received and investigated, 148.

Number of complaints about children received and investigated, 169.

Total, 317.

Number of children sent to Children's Home, 11; number of girls placed in private homes, 4; dogs disposed of by humane means, 20; number of horses ordered killed, 15; horses taken from streets and placed in livery, 22; number of arrests made 10; husbands who had left wife and family, now reunited and living together, 4; husbands paying for support of family, 6.

Dozens of family and neighborhood quarrels have been settled. Hundreds of humane acts of service were rendered not above mentioned.

But little of the present year's work was included in the report to March 1st. The work has greatly increased since that time and the next report will show such appalling figures that they will be hardly believable.

In an interview after the meeting of Monday night, Dr. C. E. Page, president of the association, said that the society had been greatly handicapped by the need of funds and that the present members hoped to enlist both the interest and the purses of every man, woman and child in the county.

As the president said, "It is a great and noble work, of practical, everyday benefit to humanity and has in it untold possibilities for good."

50 HIT TRAIL TO THE ALTAR

The Sharp Memorial Fountain, on the court house grounds at the corner of Court and Main streets, has taken on an added significance during the past week, owing to the remarkable open air meetings held at that point by the Evangelical Committee of the Ohio Conference. About 50 conversions are reported as a result of the meetings under the active supervision of visiting ministers, Revs. Brokaw, Crooks, Scoville, Elsea and Tipton, assisted by Dr. Oldham and others.

With the close of the Conference, Monday, all of the ministers left for their homes, except Revs. Crooks, Elsea and Scoville, who remained over until Tuesday morning and held another meeting Monday night. Their labors on the last night of their stay in Washington were highly successful, six young women responding to the call to repentance. As usual during these meetings, which were characterized by Rev. Isaac F. King as the greatest in the history of the Conference, the curb stones were used as an altar and newspapers were spread on the flag stones for a cushion. Local church workers attended in force and assisted the ministers in the good work. The following statement has been issued by Rev. Crooks.

"The Sharp Memorial fountain stands on holy ground and is a fitting memorial also to the salvation of fifty invaluable souls. 'Meet me at the fountain' is destined to become historic.

BROKAW,
CROOKS
SCOVILLE
UPTON."

The meeting tonight will be under the charge of Rev. Hostetter, of the Christian church. Revs. Crooks and Scoville, upon taking their departure, stated that they hoped to return at some later date for the purpose of holding a reunion at the fountain.

DOUBLE WRECK ON THE C. T. & I.

The C. T. & I. is having all kinds of trouble. Monday, eight coal cars of a freight train left the track near the station at Good Hope and tied up traffic for hours, besides considerably damaging a long stretch of track.

In an effort to allow repair of this latter without ceasing traffic, a temporary track was constructed around the opposite side of the station, connecting with the main track beyond the damaged point. A freight making this loop Tuesday, derailed and while the second wreck is not of a serious nature, as far as can be learned, it is causing much delay and trouble in the conduct of trains.

C. H. & D. TRAIN DELAYED

The C. H. & D. passenger train due here at 9:45 did not arrive Tuesday morning until 12 o'clock.

The engine broke down between here and Dayton and was relieved by a second engine sent from Dayton as soon as word of the trouble was received.

WHY NOT GIVE TOTAL AMOUNT

I, Thomas Merriman, am trying to raise enough money to build a small house on the lot I own.

The lumber costs sixty-six ($66) dollars. If I can raise twenty-six ($26) dollars, the lumber company will carry me for the balance. I am without a home. Will you help me in this undertaking? God bless the cheerful giver.

I want to raise it as soon as I can, if it is the good Lord's will. If you want to give me anything, leave it at the Washington Savings bank.

THOMAS MERRIMAN.

SCARCITY OF MILK FOLLOWS DRY SPELL

Local restaurant men and other extensive buyers of milk are experiencing a noticeable scarcity in that product as the result of the continued dry spell and its subsequent effect on pasture lands. Monday, many dealers were unable to get milk at all and Tuesday not near enough to satisfy trade, they declared.

SPRINGFIELD BUSINESS MEN WILL VISIT FAYETTE COUNTY

In an effort to advertise the city of Springfield as the best 60,000 city in America, and direct the eyes and purchase money of a large surrounding territory toward Springfield, a strong representation of her leading business men on what will be known as a "Let's Get Acquainted" trip will celebrate the second annual outing of the Springfield Commercial club by "invading" this and other nearby communities.

The outing will be taken by over two hundred members of the club on Wednesday, October 7th, by special train, four coaches, a baggage car and two diners. The train will leave Springfield at 7:00 a. m. promptly, the first stop being London, where a stop of thirty minutes will be made, then to South Charleston where the same length of time will be spent. The trip then proceeds to Selma, Cedarville, Xenia, Jamestown, Washington, Good Hope, Greenfield, Chillicothe, Circleville and Columbus. This will be the last stop and if the train travels according to schedule, the party is due to arrive in Columbus at 7:20 in the evening and will remain there until 10:30.

Committees are now being organized in every town on the route and a royal welcome will be shown the visitors. This is an entirely different route from the trip last season, which was such a great success. The different committees of the Springfield Commercial club are working night and day to insure even greater success than last season. A feature of the trip will be the parade made in each town. Every member of the club will carry a red and white umbrella with Springfield's slogan, "Share Springfield's Success".

The merchants of the smaller towns will be staunch advocates of this trip as the slogan adopted will be "Try Home First, If You Can't Get It There, Then Springfield".

Another feature of the trip will be the motion picture cameraman, who will take motion pictures in every town in which a stop is made. An expert motion photographer has been secured and will have an able corps of assistants to help him in securing the most interesting views. Later these pictures will be loaned by the club to the different towns, giving the people a chance to see themselves and their town in the "movies".

The secretary of the Springfield Commercial club is now in touch with a local committee and as soon as all arrangements are completed, more complete details will be given. The Springfield Cadet band of forty pieces will accompany the party.

INITIAL MILLINERY OPENING OCCASIONS MUCH ADMIRATION

Today marked the opening of a new epoch in the business building history of Craig Bros.

For the first time the imposing new store, fresh from the extensive remodeling which places it in the foremost rank of elegant city department stores, was thrown open for the formal opening, and with rich autumn decorations adding attraction, presented a metropolitan appearance that called forth admiration from many visitors.

For many years it has been the earnest desire of Craig Bros. to present to the ladies of this city and county, a millinery department in keeping with the other departments of this store, but owing to the inability to give adequate floor space to the project, it seemed an impossibility.

The recent remodeling of their building which added to the tremendous floor space already occupied, some 2000 square feet, provided admirably for the new section, and after being completely refurnished throughout, its presents an appearance without compare in this section of the state.

The special interest of the opening centered in the new department. It is furnished throughout in Early English and is equipped with a lighting system of the newest type. The paneled ceiling is of ivory and the walls in Robin's egg blue, furnishing a handsome setting for the magnificent stock of millinery gathered in it, and under the competent management of Miss Lulu Theobald, this department promises to be the most popular shopping place in Washington.

In connection with this department a modern Beauty Shop is in operation where expert manicuring, hair dressing, and facial massage are to be had. Mrs. Emilee Thornton is in charge of the Beauty Shop.

During the remainder of the week the ladies are cordially invited to pay a visit to the new section and see its offerings.

SALESMANSHIP MAY BE TAUGHT

In connection with the other educational night school departments, to be controlled this fall and winter by the Y. M. C. A., may be added a salesmanship course, since an urgent demand for this feature has been broached. The demand, it would seem, arises from the fact that Washington has a large number of mercantile concerns, employing many salesmen, and these, almost to a man, are enthusiastically in favor of the project.

It was first planned to start the educational season with four departments, namely, mechanical and structural drawing, stenography, book-keeping and show card writing, with a promise of organizing other classes, including salesmanship, later, if it became advisable. It seems now that not only is a class in salesmanship in demand, but that if instituted, it will become the most popular of all.

If such a class is added it is probable that Secretary Patton will organize a supervising committee, composed of local business men, who will act as sponsors to the class. The course will be chosen from the best offered in the country, and under the direction of a competent experienced teacher.

MAIN STREET BRICK IS EXPECTED SOON

Contractors in charge of the work give verbal assurance that the paving brick, the lack of which has been tying up the Main street improvement, will be here the latter part of this week or the first of next and its arrival will be followed by the immediate resumption of work.

The cause given for the delay is the scarcity of brick, which is being supplied by the Trimble Brick Company. This company is also furnishing brick, or another grade, for the Leesburg pike paving. The last of the brick for this latter improvement will arrive this week and preparations are being made for the placing of it. Graham and Kinnear handle both contracts.

GOWNS LIKE THIS ARE ONLY FOR WOMEN WITH PERFECT SHOULDERS.

There is much that is worthy of note in this evening costume of pale satin. It illustrates the use which is being made of beading in adorning fall and winter evening costumes. Black and white beads are combined in achieving the wonderful bordered effects on this garment.

SPLENDID MALE QUARTETTE.

With Coburn's Greater Minstrels tonight at the Empire theatre, one of the feature musical offerings of the season is the Metropolitan Singing Four, the best quartette in minstrelsy. There probably is not a patron or lover of minstrelsy and vocal music whose preference would not be quoted in favor of this enjoyable form of musical entertainment. Lester Lucas, basso, whose powerful voice has been heard and enjoyed with this attraction in past seasons has been promoted to the position of interlocuter in the big new First Part production, in which capacity his pleasing personality, clean enunciation and dramatic ability individualize him as master of ceremonies. William Church, counter tenor, with a splendid and powerful voice having a range of "E" above high C, make him a star soloist and top tenor feature. "Billie" is also the comedian of the quartette as well and fills it capably. Justin McCarthy, Celtic tenor lead, and soloist, whose Swiss Yodels have been heard before with Manager Coburn and Joseph Maguire, robust baritone soloist, and the latest addition to this pleasing specialty. The solos, harmony numbers and comedy bits used this season by these singers demonstrate their right to the title claimed for them, and no patron of Coburn's Minstrels will be disappointed in the result of their combined efforts to please. Seats on sale at Baldwin's.

MAY RETREAT FROM THE AISNE

Expected, Also That the Kaiser's Legions Are About to Begin Their Attempt to Take Antwerp—Line of Entrenchments Thrown Up Across the Country—Civilians Ordered to Leave Cities.

Antwerp, Sept. 22.—There is a growing belief here that the Germans are preparing to retreat from the Aisne for a further determined stand in Belgium.

In addition to the fortifications already prepared, the Germans are establishing a huge line of entrenchments which run through Mons to a point near Valenciennes. They have erected a semicircular line of fortifications to the north of Brussels and Louvain. Heavy siege guns are being mounted upon these fortifications and troops are arriving in large numbers from Germany every day.

Such preparations are not necessary merely for use against comparatively small forces of Belgian troops, because the two, possibly three, German army corps in Belgium have been adequate to keep the Belgians in check. The new defenses, therefore, must be designed to protect a new retreat.

It appears also that the Germans are about to begin their attempt to take Antwerp. Military opinion is that the Kaiser plans to storm the forts at any cost, but there is perfect confidence that the attempt will fail. Unusually heavy rains are flooding the country and will greatly handicap the movements of such heavy guns as the Germans depend upon. A great part of Belgium is a veritable swamp and general military operations are regarded as impossible.

On account of the strength of the German forces and positions in occupied territory, the Belgian armies have been unable to maintain any important offensive. They have been successful in preventing the Germans from sending at least two army corps to the relief of their armies in France and they have kept up a series of raids upon German communications. The Belgian war office has issued a statement that King Albert's troops have suffered no hindrance in their campaign of harassing the Germans.

A further indication that the eyes of the world will shortly turn again to Belgium as the center of the main operations lies in the attitude of the German military governors. Fortifications are being thrown up to the northwest of Liege and the people have been ordered to leave the city. Regulations affecting travelers have increased in severity. Without question, the apprehension of the Germans has increased. They have evacuated Termonde and Londersee.

RUSSIAN RED CROSS NURSES IN THE FIELD

STATIONS MAY BE CLOSED UP

Washington, Sept. 22.—Reports from New York that the Marconi Wireless Telegraph company intends to adhere to its course of denying the right of the United States government to impose a censorship upon its radio stations in spite of Secretary Daniels' threats to close the stations if the navy's regulations are not complied with, received no official attention here. The navy department, it is said, is now awaiting a response to the secretary's letter of last Saturday to John W. Griggs, the Marconi company's counsel, which called for a prompt reply. It was asserted that the Siasconset station will most certainly be closed if the Marconi company continues to refuse to operate it under the conditions laid down by the naval authorities.

LINDSAY'S WIRELESS.

A Scotch Genius Who Anticipated the Work of Marconi.

James Bowman Lindsay, a Scotchman, began experimenting with electricity in 1829. In a few years he produced a "constant stream of light," which was the admiration of scientists. He sent messages over wires and delivered many lectures on an electric telegraph. Then in 1852 he invented a system of wireless telegraphy and submitted it to a public test, regarding which a Dundee paper of April 12, 1853, said: "The experiment removes all doubt of the practicability of Mr. Lindsay's invention, and there is every reason to think that it will soon connect continent with continent, and island with island, in one unbroken line of communication."

Lindsay's lectures were advertised under the title of "Telegraphing Without Wires," so that the familiar "wireless" itself was anticipated. But he was more than a scientific experimentalist. He projected a dictionary in fifty languages and labored on it for a quarter of a century. It was too huge a task, and the Pontecantaglossal Dictionary exists in an unfinished state only in manuscript. He also compiled with more success a set of astronomical tables for the use of chronologists.

Yet this astonishing man never enjoyed more than an income of $250 a year as a teacher until the eve of his death, when the prime minister granted him a pension of $500 "in recognition of his great learning and extraordinary attainments."—Exchange.

BRASS ROD MONEY.

Currency That Used to Be Very Popular With African Natives.

The annual "bullion letter" of Messrs. Samuel Montagu & Co. of London suggests that the phrase expressive of wealth, "plenty of brass," was introduced into England by sailors trading with towns at the mouths of the great African rivers, though the brass rods used by the natives are now passing into the limbo of things obsolete.

A brass rod at Momemb was fifteen inches long and not quite so thick as a slate pencil. Everything had its price in brass rods—one egg equaled one brass rod; a fowl, ten brass rods; two yards of cloth, twenty brass rods; a male slave, 600 brass rods, and a female slave, 2,500 brass rods.

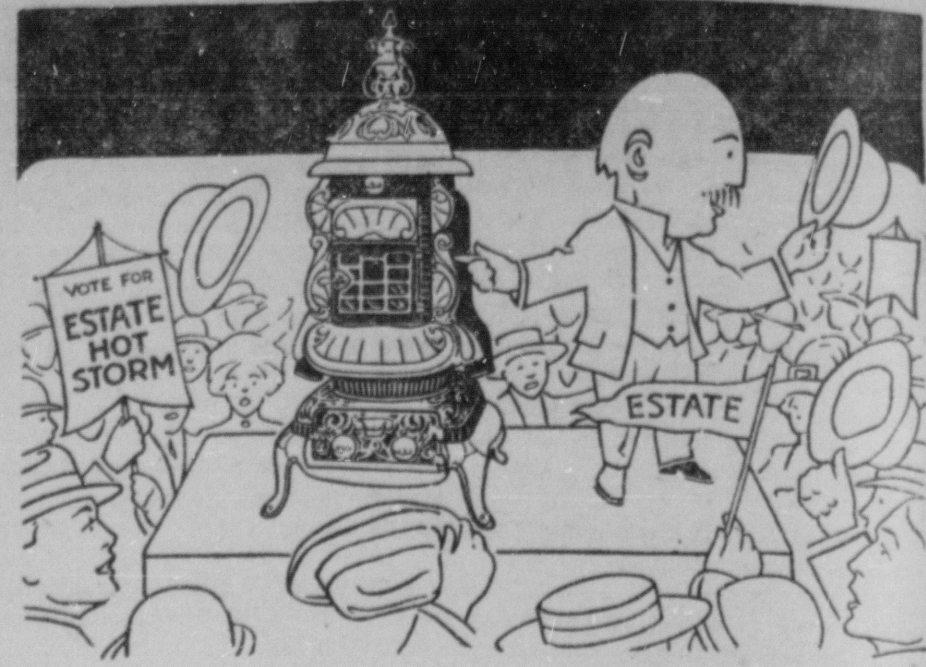

The brass for these rods was originally melted down for their brass ornaments—anklets, necklaces, armlets, leg rings, harts of spears, paddles and handles of knives, etc. It was using the brass for this purpose that first gave it any real value to them. In 1890 the brass rods still retained their value.

It is quite possible that the rods changed hands in fathom lengths, and those who came into possession of these lengths each cut off a little piece to procure a little bit of brass for nothing, and hence the length was gradually shortened until in 1890 it was fifteen inches. The process of shortening continued, and in 1905 the standard length was only eleven inches.

Is There a "Born Criminal?"

Is it to be wondered that most authorities are inclining more and more to find in a faulty environment rather than in a bad heredity the explanation of the boy who goes wrong? Not that it is as yet possible and perhaps it never will be possible to rule out entirely the idea of the "born criminal." A small proportion of delinquents unquestionably do show almost from infancy an irresistible and seemingly instinctive impulse to evil, but to just what extent this is actually due to inherited and irremediable conditions remains to be ascertained. Medical progress, in fact, is constantly making it clearer that many supposed instances of "innate depravity" are in reality the result of curable physical defects and sometimes of defects that are comparatively slight.—H. Addington Bruce in Century.

DALE

SOLDIER'S TALE

Amiens, Sept. 22.—Under the shadow of the ancient cathedral at Amiens anxious crowds await definite news of the terrific struggle which is destined to rank as one of the world's most decisive battles. It is raging a little over thirty-five miles away. Soldiers arriving here from the scenes of the conflict tell the same story of the deadly effect of the shells hurled into the French lines by the German heavy guns.

It is evident that the work of silencing them by a return artillery fire has been exceedingly difficult. Valiant regiments of French infantry have crept up the hills repeatedly and have made gallant efforts to do what the artillery seemed unable to accomplish. The withering fire of rifles and machine guns caused sad devastation, but under cover of darkness the infantry, together with the engineers, managed to advance up the hills and entrench.

DEMOCRATS ASSIST BURTON OPPOSITION

Fourteen Million Cut Ordered in the Rivers Bill.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Sixteen Democratic senators accomplished the overthrow of the rivers and harbors appropriation bill and crowned with victory a filibuster against the measure directed by Senator Theodore E. Burton of Ohio.

The senate by a vote of 27 to 22, ended the determined struggle over the $34,000,000 bill by a cloture motion by a Democrat. Senator Henry Lead of Alabama, to recommend the bill to the commerce committee's instructions that it substitute a measure appropriating a lump sum of $30,000,000 to be expended on existing waterway projects in the discretion of the secretary of war and board of army engineers.

The climax of the fight for the bill came suddenly after a desperate attempt to wear down the Republican opposition, led by the senator from Ohio, aided by Senator Kenyon of Iowa, which began last Friday morning.

MORAL SENSITIVENESS.

The Fatal Seventh Milestone of Matrimony Brings Better Reflections. He came home and found his wife in tears.

"Why, dear—what?" "It's a n-n-nothing," she sobbed bravely, trying to wipe away her tears. "Only t-t-tonight—our w-w-wedding anniversary."

He said something under his breath, ending with, "I forgot that present after all! Dear, I'm a brute." He seized his hat. "I'll run right back and—"

But she sobbed afresh. "It isn't the p-present. I didn't expect you to remember that. But, it's been s-s-seven years!"

He gnawed his mustache. Then suddenly a light overspread his face. "And it makes you feel so old! You poor baby! Why, you don't look a day over six!"

"But it isn't that! I d-d-don't mind getting old; we've been so h-happy!" He gave it up. "Then, darling, why in the name of goodness?"

"They s-s-say," she sobbed afresh, "that every bit of a person is changed every s-s-seven years, and it seems so d-d-dreadful to think that you are a d-d-different man from the one I m-m-married!"—Puck.

A Whistler Story.

While a draftsman in the coast survey from November, 1854, to February, 1855, Whistler, the artist, boarded at the northeast corner of E and Twelfth streets, Washington. He is remembered as being usually late for breakfast and always making sketches on the walls. To the remonstrating landlord he replied:

"Now, now, never mind! I'll not charge you anything for the decorations."

THE GOOD THE ILL WIND BLEW

A Visit That Brought Cupid Out of Retirement.

By VIRGINIA BLAIR.

"Nothing could be more unfortu-nate," said Miss Cynthia.
Mazie agreed dejectedly. "If she had come at any other time."

"She will expect to be entertained," Miss Cynthia chimed in.

Mazie, tying on her veil before the mirror, decided: "We can have some good times with the girls. But there won't be any men, and Constantia can't exist without men."

"Nonsense," said Miss Cynthia. "She'll have to when she comes to Hil-ton."

Mazie talked the situation over later with Serena Sears.

"You see, I met Constantia at the seashore the summer I went with the Merrills, and I had lovely clothes, and we lived at the best hotels and did everything in the most approved way."

"I told Constantia that when I was at home with Aunt Cynthia I didn't have all the advantages and that my outing with the Merrills was just their farewell treat before they went abroad. But Constantia can't under-stand what life at Hilton is, and she will expect a gay time."

"Well, it's an ill wind that blows nobody any good," said Serena senten-tiously. "Perhaps she will liveen us up a bit."

"Constantia could liveen up a num-ber," Mazie told her, "but Hilton is hopeless."

Letters coming from Constantia told of her preparations.

"She is getting lots of pretty clothes," Mazie reported to Serena, "and where is she going to wear them?"

But Serena, true to her name, would not worry. "She will delight our eyes with them," she said. "I haven't seen an up to date gown for so long that I'd rather gaze on it than on a Rem-brandt."

The day of Constantia's arrival Mazie put the big old fashioned house in order, while Aunt Cynthia baked delectable tarts.

Serena Sears came in the afternoon. "If Constantia hasn't the good taste to enjoy this lovely old room and Aunt Cynthia's tea and muffins and cocoanut cake she's a benighted individual," said she.

"But think of Constantia trailing pale blue broadcloth on this old rug!" wailed Mazie.

Mazie walked to the station, but she brought Constantia back in the only cab the town afforded. It was shabby and ramshackle, but the little horse was plump, and so was the driver.

"We feed people and animals well in Hilton," Mazie explained to Constantia. "Eating is our only diversion."

Constantia dimpled. "I think Hilton is dear," she emphasized.

But after they had driven a little way she said suddenly, "Mazie Langley, I don't believe I have seen a single man since we left the station."

"There aren't any," Mazie informed her. "I warned you. I told you in my letters that Hilton was deadly dull."

Constantia's laugh rippled. "Oh, you goose," she said, "as if I cared! It will be a rest, if the girls are nice—a sort of bachelor girls' paradise."

Mazie nodded. "There is nothing for men to do in these Hampshire hills," she said, "and except a few merchants and the minister and the doctor there aren't any."

"Well, I wish Bobbie Dwyer could hear that," Constantia murmured.

"Who is Bobbie Dwyer?" Mazie de-manded.

"Bobbie," Constantia explained, with elaborate and strangely earnest scorn-fulness, "is a lord of creation. I was engaged to him until one day he tried to dictate to me! Then, of course, I broke it off and told him there were some worse things than being an old maid, and he flung back at me that he should live single, for he could never trust a woman again, and then I told him that an old maid was happier than a bachelor, and he said if I tried it I'd find out, and, oh, I wish you had heard us!" And in spite of the trag-edy of her recital Constantia laughed.

"And I'm glad there aren't any men here—I hate them!"

Mazie's face glowed. "We will have a lovely time if you feel that way," she said.

Just then the ramshackle cab round-ed a curve and there was the old house, with Aunt Cynthia at the win-dow and the light shining out behind her, and they went in and had tea and muffins and little cakes, and Mazie feasted her eyes on the picture Constantia made in her modish gown.

The next day Serena Sears came over.

"Mazie told me how pretty you were," she said quaintly, "and I told her I'd rather see you than a picture."

but you are better than a whole art gallery."

And that afternoon a lot of gir- came, pretty and fluttering creatures, who hung about Constantia admiringly.

"I love girls," she said when they had gone away.

That night more girls came, and in the afternoon there was a girls' ten, and at night a feminine galaxy came over and sat around the fire and popped corn and sang college songs.

When Constantia and Mazie went to bed that night the pretty guest re-marked, "I love girls," but her voice lacked eager enthusiasm.

Several days later Serena Sears gave a dance.

"Of course there won't be any men," she said, "but we can all dress up and dance with each other, and the girls are crazy to see that white chiffon of yours, Constantia."

But when Constantia was arrayed in all her glory she surveyed herself thoughtfully in the mirror. "It seems a bit wasted," she murmured. "Bobbie always liked me in white."

The dance was not a great success. It lacked something, and that some-thing Constantia said equivocally was men.

In the days that followed the girls still fluttered and admired, but Constantia looked at them with specu-lative eyes.

"It's a pity," she said over the tea-cups to Mazie, "that so many lovely girls should not marry."

"I thought old maidism was the hap-piest state," Mazie ventured.

"Of course, for me," Constantia said hastily, "but for you and Serena and the others—oh, you ought to meet some nice men!"

And all that evening she was dreamy, and before she went to bed she wrote a letter.

"I will have the favors and refresh-ments sent out from the city," she said. "Everybody here has been so kind that I want to be hostess before I go."

Aunt Cynthia was induced to con-sent, and the girls of Hilton got out their best gowns.

When the caterer came with his host of assistants Aunt Cynthia sought Con-stantia in a great state of excitement. "You have ordered far too much," she said.

There was a faraway look in Con-stantia's eyes. "They will eat it up," she promised.

"But girls have such delicate appe-tites," Aunt Cynthia protested.

"Oh, girls!" Constantia murmured and dropped the subject.

But when she came downstairs to greet her guests she was so radiantly beautiful in pink and silver, with her eyes like stars, that Mazie caught her breath as she looked at her.

"Constantia!" she cried. "What has happened?"

Just then from without came the "honk, honk" of a motor horn, which was echoed by another and another, and as Mazie flung open the door, with

Treatment of Burns.
Don't thrust a burned foot or hand into cold water. It relieves for a moment, only to be follow-ed by an increase of pain, peel-ing off of the cuticle and very frequently by ulceration of the wound. Don't tie up in a dry cloth; all woven material is por-ous and admits air. Don't drag off the clothing. If it must be removed, carefully cut it off, if that can be done without tearing the skin. Don't rub or cut off the hanging skin. Your object when called upon to treat a burn is at once to exclude air. For this purpose nothing is bet-ter than oil of some sort. Paraffin is not a bad thing, or vaseline, or common olive oil, or lard and butter, if both be entirely with-out salt.

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE OF Y. M. C. A. GETTING BUSY

Expects to Raise $275 This Week to Meet Expenses—Secretary Patton Addresses Meeting—Committee Will Take Care of Juniors, Unable to Pay Membership Fees.

Such is the slogan adopted by the Y. M. C. A. membership committee Tuesday night at one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in connection with the Y. M. C. A. work here. In explanation he said that this committee, composed of some of Washington's most prominent business and professional men, is undertaking, with confident determination, to secure new memberships before the close of this week that will bring in $275 or more, to the association.

The action was taken following Secretary Patton's announcement in the meeting that the monthly expenses, unusually heavy this month because of insurance assessments, coal bills, and other demands outside the regular expense, would reach this amount.

Mr. Patton, in a talk to the committee called its attention to the fact that the membership is very low and suggested that the members make a strenuous personal campaign to increase the roll. He expressed himself as not in favor of a big membership campaign, with its attendant expenses, at this time, adding that he believed the results could be obtained in other, if less pretentious ways.

Another matter came before the membership committee Monday night, and although not quite in the committee's province was generously adopted by it. It was the matter of taking care of the young lads who are unable to pay for membership but who desire to belong to the association. There are several of these, it would appear, and immediately the matter was broached to the committee came the assurance that they would be taken care of.

A report will be given in the latter part of the week on the campaign.

BULLETINS

By Associated Press.

Amsterdam, September 22.—An aeroplane of unknown nationality dropped a bomb in Maastricht this morning, near the Brussels gate, according to a dispatch received here. No lives were lost but a big hole was torn in the ground; trees were broken; the doors of a nearby house were riddled and windows for a considerable distance, shattered. Automobiles were sent in pursuit of the aircraft but it disappeared, going south.

Paris, September 22.—In a dispatch from Nish, Serbia, dated Sunday, September 20, the correspondent of the Havas News Agency says the Austrians have been forced to retreat all along the entire front between Lioubovia and Losnitza, and that they are being hotly pursued by the Serbian forces. The Serbians destroyed the bridges over the river Drina, but after suffering heavy losses, the Austrians succeeded in getting to the opposite bank.

STRIKES MINE AND 22 DROWN

By Associated Press.

Trebizond, Asia Minor, via London, Sept. 22.—Twenty-two persons lost their lives by drowning, as a result of the sinking of the British steamer Belgian King, near Cape Kureh, yesterday.

The Belgian King carried passengers and crew to the number of 120. Ninety-eight of them were saved by a Russian steamer. It is surmised this accident was due to a mine, but the real cause has not been revealed.

DEFEAT AUSTRIANS

London, September 22.—In a dispatch from Rome, the correspondent of the Star says Servian and Montenegrin forces have occupied Samatovo, which was abandoned by the Austrians after an overwhelming defeat.

ERADICATE THE RAT!

A Disease Breeder and Carrier That Serves No Good Purpose.

Rats are dangerous. They have no legitimate business, nor can they serve any good purpose in any community. Sanitarians are well agreed that rats are a serious menace to health. They are so filthy in their habits as tenants of the sewers and as feeders on everything dirty and diseased that it is no wonder they are carriers of disease, parasites and plague infection.

That rats are afflicted with many diseases more than bubonic plague is confirmed by Dr. Rupert Blue, surgeon general of the United States public health service, who, speaking on this point, says: "Other infections of the rat are trematodes, or flukes; cestodes, or tapeworms; nematodes, or round worms; protozoa, insects and vegetable microbes." Of the rats examined in San Francisco 34 per cent were infested with tapeworms.

Plague is primarily a disease of the rat. It is communicated from the plague stricken rat to other rats and from rats to man by means of fleas, as the principal agent, yet it has been determined many times that handling a rat that has been dead of plague only a few hours gives the infection almost instantly. Two small boys while playing in an unused cellar found the body of a dead rat. The corpse was buried with unusual funeral honors. In forty-eight hours both were ill with bubonic plague. A laborer finding a sick rat on the wharf picked it up with the naked hand and threw it into the bay. He was seized three days later with plague. But the flea is the chief inoculator. Fleas abandon a rat dead of plague and go in search of living beings who still have warm blood circulating in their veins. Biting man they inoculate into him the living virus which starts the disease.

Since plague is a disease due to rats and rat fleas and not to filthy habits, there's only one thing to do to avoid plague, eradicate the rats. This can be done by making war on them with traps, poison and starvation, and by "rat proofing" against them; that is by building them out. As a result of the Chinatown plague epidemic in 1907, so efficient was the ratproof construction that followed, that rats and plague were entirely "built out" of that part of the city.

DR. MOON RECOVERING FROM EFFECTS OF FALL

Dr. O. C. Moon, well known local dentist, who has been suffering severely from the effects of a fall from a step ladder, sustained about a month ago, is able to be up and around again. He is, however, forced to use a cane and cannot, as yet, give full attention to his practice.

The accident occurred when the doctor was in the act of arranging some goods on a high shelf in his wife's millinery store. He was injured about the right hip.

STATE SECRETARY HERE NEXT WEEK

A. H. Lichty, state secretary of the Y. M. C. A., will be in the city from Tuesday to Friday of next week, as the guest of local secretary, Walter Patton, and while here will meet with the various department committees of the Association, assisting them in the outlining of the winter's work.

Mr. Lichty will be accompanied by Mr. E. J. Harte, of Cleveland, chairman of the religious work committee of the Cleveland Y. M. C. A., who will confer with the local religious work committee.

POISONED BITE RESULTS FATALLY

A large family connection and many friends throughout the county and especially in the Buena Vista neighborhood, have been shocked and saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Albert B. Haines, Sunday evening.

About three weeks ago Mrs. Haines was bitten on the limb by an old-fashioned sweet potato bug. The bite seemed to have been venomous and blood poisoning ensued, causing great suffering during the past week.

Four physicians from Buena Vista and this city were in consultation at the time that the death summons came.

Mrs. Haines was one of the most highly esteemed women of the Buena Vista vicinity, active in all church work and always helpful in benevolences, and will be greatly missed. A devoted mother, she leaves heretofore a husband, four sons, Tipton, Eph, Mont and Austin, and two daughters, Mrs. Frances Patton and Mrs. Nina Blinagar.

Funeral services will be held at the White Oak Chapel Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

BADLY CRIPPLED IN RUNAWAY

Lafe Reynolds, of the Plymouth pike, had a close call Monday evening, when he was found by T. P. Watts, of this city, badly crippled and lying in a ditch at the side of the road.

Mr. Reynolds had been helping Wm. Dice cut corn and at supper time started home driving a spirited horse with spring wagon.

Between the Dice home and the L. Baughn place, on the Plymouth pike, the horse became unmanageable, throwing its driver out and in its attempt to run itself was thrown and caught between the hind wheels.

The injured man had lain by the road side some little time when Mr. Watts, driving home from a business trip to Millidgeville, about six o'clock found him. Mr. Watts called the Baughn Bros. and with their assistance carried Mr. Reynolds to his bug-

SEARCHING MOUNTAINS ON PACIFIC

Washington, September 22.—On complaint of the British Embassy, the Department of Agriculture has begun search for a mysterious wireless plant supposed to be operating in the mountains on the Pacific coast. Information furnished to the department is vague but apparently the plant is busily engaged in sending messages uncensored by the Federal government. Forest rangers who patrol the mountains are understood to have received orders to look for the wireless outfit.

Washington, September 22.—The report that a wireless plant was in operation somewhere in the Puget Sound country, and was communicating with the German cruiser, Leipzig, originated in British Columbia, a month ago. It was reported further that steamers leaving Seattle with coal were planning delivery to the Leipzig at sea. Investigations by United States naval officers proved that the coal was for legitimate destination and that there was no wireless plant conveying unlawful messages.

NOT MAKING PREDICTIONS

Washington, September 22.—The victory of the Senate filibusters against the River and Harbor bill bore fruit speedily today when the Commerce Committee formally reported a room measure providing for $20,000,000 to be spent by the army engineers. No prolonged discussion was expected in the Senate, but how the House would receive the reduction of nearly $35,000,000 could not be predicted.

Washington, September 22.—The Administration War Revenue bill was formally reported out of the Ways and Means Committee today with all the Democrats voting in its favor and all the Republicans in opposition. The tax of 2 cents a gallon on gasoline was extended to cover "motor spirits." The Rules Committee will meet tomorrow to report a special rule for expeditions consideration of the bill. A tentative agreement was reached with Republican leaders for a vote at 4 p. m. Friday.

ZANZIBAR BATTLE ENGLISH DEFEAT

By Associated Press.
Capetown, Union of South Africa, September 22.—Further details have been obtained here of the naval action in the Harbor of Zanzibar last Sunday morning when the British cruiser, Pegasus, under command of Captain John A. Inglis, was attacked and put out of action by the German cruiser Koenigsberg. It seems that the Koenigsberg approached Zanzibar harbor at full speed at 5 a. m., Sunday. She disabled a patrol boat with three shots and then opened fire on the Pegasus. Her shooting was very accurate. The Pegasus replied with all her guns but her artillery was disabled in fifteen minutes. When her fire ceased there came a lull of five minutes, after which the Koenigsberg again opened fire for another quarter of an hour. The Pegasus was unable to reply. Nearly all the casualties on board the British ship occurred around her guns and on her upper deck. She was badly injured on the water line and listed heavily. Her flag was shot away twice, but each time it was raised again and held up by her marines. Apparently little damage was sustained by the German ship.

CRYING OVER SPILLED MILK

Washington, September 22.—The German Embassy today received the following wireless from Berlin: "Headquarters reports, September 21, that the attack against the French-English army makes progress. Rheims lies in the French battle line and we regret being forced to answer their fire. The city suffers but orders have been given to spare the cathedral."

operations directed against the plateau above the city, where the Allies undoubtedly will endeavor again to disprove, as did Napoleon, the theory of Blucher, that these heights are impregnable, even if defended by only 25,000 men.

Belgian stories continue from the shelter of Antwerp but neither the Belgians nor the Germans have brought about any real change in their relative positions in this district.

From Petrograd comes stories of the continued flight of the broken Austrian armies in Galicia, while at the same time Vienna declares that these armies are reorganizing for offensive action.

It would seem clear, however, that only Przemyel is today standing out against the total occupation of Galicia by Russia.

That the Austrian army was not so badly demoralized and disorganized as at first reported, is indicated by the admission from Petrograd of the determined nature of the four days' assault which preceded the capture of Lemberg.

All eyes are now fixed on the western section of the great battle line in France, where the allied army is expected to defend, on the German right, which already is bending backwards under persistent pressure, to the north of the river Aisne. If these German positions are once carried, strategists here believe the whole German front will be in danger.

Paris, Sept. 22.—The following official announcement was made in Paris today: "Along the entire front from the Oise to the Woivre, the Germans manifested yesterday, September 21, a certain activity, without, however, obtaining appreciable results. "First, on our right wing, on the right bank of the river Oise, the Germans were obliged to yield ground before the French attacks. Between the Oise and the Aisne the situation remains unchanged. The enemy has not delivered any serious attacks, contenting itself yesterday, Monday, evening, with a continued cannonading. "Second, on the center, between Rheims and Souain, the enemy at-

HER CREW WHEN THEY ALSO WERE TORPEDOED.

The warships Aboukir, Hogue and Cressy are cruisers of the same type. Their tonnage, armament, etc., are identical. These vessels had a displacement of 12,000 tons, were 440 feet long, 69 1/2 feet wide and drew 26 feet of water. Each one had a complement of 775 men including officers and crew.

London, Sept. 22.—The dearth of official news this morning from the long battle front in the western arena of the war has raised the usual crop of rumors.

These attract interest and, in the minds of some people, are important from the fact that, originating simultaneously at widely distant points, they seem more or less to confirm each other. The unsubstantiated report from Antwerp, to the effect that General Von Kluck, the commander of the German right wing, has removed his headquarters back to Mons, completes these rumors.

The latest official communication from Paris, even more laconic than usual, declares that the allies are making progress between Rheims and the Argonne, although the fighting during the daytime yesterday was less violent.

A wounded British officer, who has returned to Paris from the front, has supplemented the official news with the declaration that the allies, on their left, have advanced seven miles. Berlin, however, reports that the German counter attacks about Rheims have resulted in their capture of the strong hill positions at Craonne, northwest of Rheims, and the occupation of the village of Betheny, three miles north of the French city.

Berlin claims also a successful attack on the line of forts south of Verdum, defended by eight French army corps, as a result of which, German troops have crossed the east border in the direction of Lorraine.

The devoted city of Rheims may be razed to the ground, it is felt in London; not because in itself it has any strategic importance, but because it happens to be in the way of the

BERLIN CLAIMS SUCCESSES

Official Statement Declares Attack Against the French Troops Has Progressed and That the Germans Have Advanced at Several Points. Army Under Crown Prince Begins Attack on Forts at Verdun—Tenth Day of the Battle of the Aisne.

BULLETIN.
Berlin, Sept. 22.—(Via London.)—An official communication on the course of the battle around Rheims, says: "The strong hilly positions at Craonne have been captured. Advancing on Rheims our troops occupied the village of Bethany. We are attacking the strong forts on the line south of Verdun and the Germans have crossed the east border in the direction of Lorraine, which is defended by eight French army corps. A sortie from the north-east of Verdun has been repulsed."

Paris, Sept. 22.—One result of the great battle of the Aisne places General Von Kluck, commanding the German right wing, in peril of envelopment. British and French have struggled forward at awful cost to the heights of Lassigny, thus endangering the extreme German right. East of Rheims, in the center of the battle, the allies are breaching the German line and have driven the Germans from strong positions. The emperor's troops are receding on the plains of Chalons, stubbornly fighting, but constantly driven. The retreat in the center adds to the danger of Von Kluck's army and indicates necessity for a general withdrawal to a new line of defense.

Rainstorms and inclement weather have slackened battle fury at the east of the line, where the Grand Duke of Wurttemberg and Crown Prince Frederick William are struggling to hold positions.

The allies, according to the official communique, have gained an advantage along the battle front from Rheims to the Argonne forest. The French report the capture of three towns on the western side of Argonne and also of the heights of Lassigny, west of Noyon and to the right of the German line. There were severe engagements to the east of the Oise and north of the Aisne. Along this part of the line the Germans displayed renewed activity and many attacks resulted in bayonet charges.

German Version.
An official report from Berlin says that the army under the command of the crown prince began an attack on the forts at Verdun. The statement said that the German attack against British and French troops has progressed and that the Germans have gone forward at several points. The statement also reiterates previous expressions of regret at the necessity for the bombardment of Rheims. The war office declares that the German artillery has proved its superiority over that of the allies.

The Germans, according to their own official report, have been strongly reinforced both on their right, where General Von Kluck is making such a stubborn stand in almost impregnable positions on the hills north of Aisne, and in the center, where the Germans are making almost superhuman efforts to recapture Rheims.

The German emperor has taken up his quarters in Luxembourg. Thousands of troops are stationed around the legation where he resides. To guard against possible raids by French aviators, a squadron of aeroplanes is in constant readiness to beat off attacks.

According to a Copenhagen dispatch the German fleet in the Baltic has defeated a Russian squadron. The battle is said to have taken place east of Kolberg and a number of Russian ships are reported to have arrived at Helsingfors.

The Turkish fleet is coaling at Constantinople, according to a reliable report received here, and will be ready to move within 48 hours if the porte decides to side with Germany.

OVER BILLION DOLLARS FOR GERMAN WAR

Berlin, Sept. 22.—(By Wireless via Sayville, L. I.)—Brilliant success has been met in the raising of a war loan by subscriptions to imperial bonds and treasury certificates. Up to the present time 4,250,000,000 marks ($1,650,000,000) has been raised. With a number of reports still out the total subscriptions to the imperial loan have already reached 2,940,000,000 marks. Treasury certificates to the amount of 1,000,000,000 marks were offered and this has been oversubscribed by 200,000,000.

The newspapers are proud that this result should be reached without foreign subscription or the sending of blanks to many well-to-do Germans now in the field. On account of the unexpected success the final terms of payment have been postponed until December. One newspaper terms the success as a "victory of those at the river Somme."

FRENCH PROTEST

Washington, Sept. 22.—Ambassador Jusserand delivered to Acting Secretary of State Lansing a copy of a message from his government solemnly protesting against the destruction of Rheims by German artillery.

POPE AROUSED

Rome, Sept. 22.—When informed of the destruction of the cathedral of Rheims, Pope Benedict XV. said he "could not believe it possible in such a civilized epoch as the twentieth century to be plunged back to the time of Attila." The pontiff requested Cardinal Ferrata to request Cardinal Amette, archbishop of Paris, for full particulars, as telegrams from Rheims are not accepted.

WOMAN ATTACKED

Columbus, Sept. 22.—While walking through a vacant lot at Cleveland and Fifth avenues, Mrs. Ida Hollihan, twenty-two, and Lawrence Avery, twenty-six, a soldier at the United States barracks, were attacked by two negroes, who, after knocking Avery unconscious, criminally attacked Mrs. Hollihan.

AMERICAN SOLDIERS

TO QUIT VERA CRUZ WITHIN A FORTNIGHT

Only American Refugees Will Be Cared For.

Washington, Sept. 22.—Plans for the evacuation of Vera Cruz were completed at a conference between President Wilson and Secretary Garrison. The latter sent word to General Funston that as soon as the state department could adjust certain questions which had arisen over the payment of funds collected at the customs house and American refugees cared for a date would be fixed for the departure of the troops.

Secretary Garrison expressed the opinion that the troops probably would be able to get away within a fortnight or so. The secretary made it clear that the American government would not undertake to care for any of the refugees in Vera Cruz except Americans. Church organizations of other countries, it is presumed, will pay for the transportation of the others, unless foreign governments request relief. General Funston estimates that besides the 300 so called religious refugees there are 1,000 others who desire to leave before the evacuation begins.

What It All Means

One of the very best indications that the people of this nation are enjoying an era of prosperity and are not, as the gloomy pessimist would have us believe, in the throes of a paralyzing financial depression, is to be found in the fact that our schools and colleges and universities show a substantial increase in enrollment over the previous school year.

Of course the increase in the enrollment in the common schools may be readily and plausibly accounted for on the basis of the increase in population, but the increase shown in the enrollment of students in the colleges and universities cannot be accounted for and explained away by the pessimist on any such ground.

This increase in the attendance of boys and girls at the colleges and universities is conclusive of the existence of these wholesome conditions:

That the fathers and mothers of the land are able to spare the boys and girls from the work-a-day-world; that their services in the fight for the things material necessary to the family existence may be dispensed with; that the fathers and mothers have accumulated enough of this world's goods and are able to earn enough by their daily toil no matter what the field, to send the boys and girls to college, clothe and feed them while they are striving to obtain a higher education.

It means also that the people—both the parents and the children—are appreciative of the advantages which come to the possessor of a trained mind and a fully developed intellect. It means that the people have realized the advantages to be obtained from the educational facilities of the land and are joining in the demand for a betterment of school conditions and in doing so giving a negative answer to those who are opposing the enactment and enforcement of laws which make for higher efficiency in the school systems all over the land—both common and collegiate.

But best of all and supreme to all other indications which these conditions carry it means that not only is the demand for a higher and better citizenship realized but that practical steps to bring about a better equipped citizenship are being taken and that the hopes and the desires of the present generation will be fulfilled in the next generation.

A higher and better citizenship must and will carry with it the greatest measure of progress in this great world of ours and to the nation whose people possess the highest standard of intellectual development carrying with it that higher moral development which goes hand in hand with mental development will come the greatest prosperity in the great era of peace which must succeed the present awful war of nations.

The people of this land have much of promise to be thankful for in the splendid increase in school enrollment.

It's significance cannot be underestimated. Education is a building of the foundation of a nation and a race, and the people of this nation are at work on that foundation.

We of this age should be thankful that we have the material to work with, the inclination to do the work and the prosperity which permits us to do that great work.

Student Military Instruction Camps Good Proposition

By Major General LEONARD WOOD, U. S. A.

THE result sought by student military instruction camps is not militarism, but to make provision in some degree to meet a VITAL NEED CONFRONTING US AS A WARLIKE BUT UNMILITARY PEOPLE desiring peace, to the end that peace and prosperity may be preserved THROUGH THE ONLY SAFE PRECAUTION—more thorough preparation and equipment to resist any effort to break such peace.

THE IDEA OF THESE CAMPS HAS BEEN RECEIVED WITH MOST GRATIFYING ENTHUSIASM NOT ONLY BY THE STUDENTS AND THEIR PARENTS, BUT BY THE LEADING EDUCATIONAL AUTHORITIES.

I recommend the cordial support of the department and of congress of the students' military instruction camps and that a LIMITED AMOUNT OF FINANCIAL SUPPORT BE GIVEN THEM.

Poetry For Today

BRIERWOOD.

You have lit the night with many a song,
You have solved some problems too hard for me;
You have shortened the way when it seemed so long.
You have been as true as a friend could be.
You have helped me to know when the spring came back,
Its infinite wonder and sweet surprise;
You have helped in winters of storm and rack
To find gold stars in the still blue skies.
You have given me counsel I could not win
By bribe or purchase on this green earth;
You have thrown much light on my wayward sin,
You have brought much beauty and quiet mirth.
You have given me strength when the fight seemed hard,
You have given me joy when the way seemed dark;
You have healed me of many a wound and shard,
You have been my arrarat and my Ark.

You have brought me visions of beautiful things,
And brightened my heart with a fuller hope;
You have taught me to open and lift my wings,
You have helped me to rise when I thought to grope.
And you've never asked anything, nothing at all,
Quiet, contented—old friend, so ripe!
And I sing you a song with my whole heart's thrall,
And God be praised for my briar-wood pipe!

RUSSIAN CROWDS CRACOW

Capture Town Thirty Miles West Of Przemyśl

PURSING AUSTRIAN ARMIES

St. Petersburg Claims Also That the Germans in East Prussia Are Being Pushed Back — Austrian Government Denies Its Position Is Grave, Claiming Its Battle Line Was Never Stronger.

London, Sept. 22.—Russian cavalry captured the town of Dubiecko, on the San river, took hundreds of prisoners, several batteries of artillery and wagonloads of ammunition and supplies.

Dubiecko is thirty miles west of the invested fortress of Przemyśl and marks the farthest advance of the Russian center against Cracow. Already the Russians hold Sniawa, north of Jaroslaw, and Rzeszow, to the west, while their occupation of Sambor, southeast of Przemyśl, assured them the district to cut off Austrian reinforcements.

St. Petersburg asserts that the Russian armies, while pursuing and breaking up the widely scattered Austrian armies under Generals Von Auffenberg, Danil and Archduke Charles Francis Joseph, have invested the whole fortified line from Przemyśl to Jaroslaw and have not halted the march toward Cracow. Sufficient Russian troops, with siege guns, have been left to bombard or storm the Przemyśl and Jaroslaw fortresses, admittedly very strong, but the main armies have swung around the fortified line and are advancing by two lines of railway toward Cracow.

Russians claim that the Germans in East Prussia are being pushed back by General Rennenkampf and that the German forces who were invading Russian Poland have had to retire to escape the peril of the Russian advance in northwest Galicia.

The Austrian government refuses to concede that the situation is grave. An official statement by the war office in Vienna says: "Our battle line in Galicia has never been stronger. The new battle line from Przemyśl to Cracow is engaged. For strategic reasons our forces have retreated slightly along this line in order to occupy stronger positions. The city of Jaroslaw was fired on leaving it."

PRACTICAL HEALTH HINT.

Tonsillitis.

Tonsillitis is an acute inflammation of the tonsils, accompanied by pain, chills, fever and headache. It is very contagious. It is sometimes an early symptom of scarlet fever, diphtheria or septic sore throat, and it is the first stage in an attack of quinsy.

Repeated attacks of tonsillitis make it advisable to remove the tonsils, since rheumatism often follows tonsillitis, and there are a good many cases of heart disease that can be traced to a severe tonsillitis or to the rheumatism that followed it.

All cases of sore throat should be isolated, for they may be caused by scarlet fever, diphtheria, or some other serious infectious disease. For the same reasons a physician should be called at once, so that he can determine the source of the trouble and, if necessary, begin the early treatment that is so important in diphtheria.

Report all cases of tonsillitis to the local health officer with information concerning the source of the milk supply of the family. That is of importance, because numerous epidemics of diphtheria, scarlet fever and septic sore throat have been spread through milk that has been infected in the dairy.

DESTRUCTION INTENTIONAL

Paris, Sept. 22.—Feelings of the deepest indignation are expressed here over the destruction of the cathedral at Rheims. These feelings are shared by everyone in France. It is unlikely that any of the precious contents of the cathedral were saved. It was particularly rich in tapestries and gobelins, including some which showed the history of Clovis, the history of the Virgin, Jesus Among the Doctors and the Marriage of Cana.

A dispatch from Chalons says that the walls of the cathedral remain standing. The town hall, the museum and hospitals, as well as the principal office buildings adjoining, have been for the most part destroyed. It has been proved, it is claimed, that the fire of the German artillery was intentionally directed at the church buildings and monuments of the town. Several inhabitants were killed, including the deputy mayor.

Fifteen per cent of the food of the bobwhite is composed of insects, including several of the most serious pests of agriculture. Half of its food consists of weed seeds, one-fourth of grain and about one-sixteenth of wild fruits. Taken in all the bobwhite is very useful to the farmer, and while it may not be necessary to remove it from the list of game birds every farmer should see that his own farm is not depleted by sportsmen.

THE MILLION DOLLAR MYSTERY -- WEDNESDAY

ACCOMPLISHMENTS OF THE HUMANE SOCIETY

The Humane society held an important meeting Monday night, and aroused by a number of pitiful cases which have been brought to its attention, decided to inaugurate a campaign throughout the county—a campaign which will increase both the membership and the efficiency of the work.

The society is convinced that there is tremendous opportunity for such an organization in our midst. That there is need of work in this community far beyond anything deemed possible was given conclusive proof in the following:

Report of Humane Officer Gooderill up to March 1st, 1914:

Number of complaints about animals received and investigated, 148.

Number of complaints about children received and investigated, 169. Total, 317.

Number of children sent to Children's Home, 11; number of girls placed in private homes, 4; dogs disposed of by humane means, 20; number of horses ordered killed, 15; horses taken from streets and placed in livery, 22; number of arrests made 10; husbands who had left wife and family, now reunited and living together, 4; husbands paying for support of family, 6.

Dozens of family and neighborhood quarrels have been settled. Hundreds of humane acts of service were rendered not above mentioned.

But little of the present year's work was included in the report to March 1st. The work has greatly increased since that time and the next report will show such appalling figures that they will be hardly believable.

In an interview after the meeting of Monday night, Dr. C. E. Page, president of the association, said that the society had been greatly handicapped by the need of funds and that the present members hoped to enlist both the interest and the purses of every man, woman and child in the county.

As the president said, "It is a great and noble work, of practical, everyday benefit to humanity and has in it untold possibilities for good."

50 HIT TRAIL TO THE ALTAR

The Sharp Memorial Fountain, on the court house grounds at the corner of Court and Main streets, has taken on an added significance during the past week, owing to the remarkable open air meetings held at that point by the Evangelical Committee of the Ohio Conference. About 50 conversions are reported as a result of the meetings under the active supervision of visiting ministers, Revs. Brokaw, Crooks, Scoville, Elsea and Tipton, assisted by Dr. Oldham and others.

With the close of the Conference, Monday, all of the ministers left for their homes, except Revs. Crooks, Elsea and Scoville, who remained over until Tuesday morning and held another meeting Monday night. Their labors on the last night of their stay in Washington were highly successful, six young women responding to the call to repentance. As usual during these meetings, which were characterized by Rev. Isaac F. King as the greatest in the history of the Conference, the curb stones were used as an altar and newspapers were spread on the flag stones for a cushion. Local church workers attended in force and assisted the ministers in the good work. The following statement has been issued by Rev. Crooks.

"The Sharp Memorial fountain stands on holy ground and is a fitting memorial also to the salvation of fifty invaluable souls. 'Meet me at the fountain' is destined to become historic.

The meeting tonight will be under the charge of Rev. Hostetler, of the Christian church, Revs. Crooks and Scoville, upon taking their departure, stated that they hoped to return at some later date for the purpose of holding a reunion at the fountain.

DOUBLE WRECK ON THE C. T. & I.

The C. T. & I. is having all kinds of trouble. Monday, eight coal cars of a freight train left the track near the station at Good Hope and tied up traffic for hours, besides considerably damaging a long stretch of track.

In an effort to allow repair of this latter without ceasing traffic, a temporary track was constructed around the opposite side of the station, connecting with the main track beyond the damaged point. A freight making this loop Tuesday, derailed and while the second wreck is not of a serious nature, as far as can be learned, it is causing much delay and trouble in the conduct of trains.

C. H. & D. TRAIN DELAYED

The C. H. & D. passenger train due here at 9:45 did not arrive Tuesday morning until 12 o'clock.

The engine broke down between here and Dayton and was relieved by a second engine sent from Dayton as soon as word of the trouble was received.

SPRINGFIELD BUSINESS MEN WILL VISIT FAYETTE COUNTY

In an effort to advertise the city of Springfield as the best 60,000 city in America, and direct the eyes and purchase money of a large surrounding territory toward Springfield, a strong representation of her leading business men on what will be known as a "Let's Get Acquainted" trip will celebrate the second annual outing of the Springfield Commercial club by "invading" this and other nearby communities.

The outing will be taken by over two hundred members of the club on Wednesday, October 7th, by special train, four coaches, a baggage car and two diners. The train will leave Springfield at 7:00 a. m. promptly, the first stop being London, where a stop of thirty minutes will be made, then to South Charleston where the same length of time will be spent. The trip then proceeds to Selma, Cedarville, Xenia, Jamestown, Washington, Good Hope, Greenfield, Chillicothe, Circleville and Columbus. This will be the last stop and if the train travels according to schedule, the party is due to arrive in Columbus at 7:20 in the evening and will remain there until 10:30.

Committees are now being organized in every town on the route and a royal welcome will be shown the visitors. This is an entirely different

WHY NOT GIVE TOTAL AMOUNT

I, Thomas Merriman, am trying to raise enough money to build a small house on the lot I own.

The lumber costs sixty-six ($66) dollars. If I can raise twenty-six ($26) dollars, the lumber company will carry me for the balance. I am without a home. Will you help me in this undertaking? God bless the cheerful giver.

I want to raise it as soon as I can, if it is the good Lord's will. If you want to give me anything, leave it at the Washington Savings bank.

THOMAS MERRIMAN.

SCARCITY OF MILK FOLLOWS DRY SPELL

Local restaurant men and other extensive buyers of milk are experiencing a noticeable scarcity in that product as the result of the continued dry spell and its subsequent effect on pasture lands. Monday, many dealers were unable to get milk at all and Tuesday not near enough to satisfy trade, they declared.

INITIAL MILLINERY OPENING OCCASIONS MUCH ADMIRATION

Today marked the opening of a new epoch in the business building history of Craig Bros.

For the first time the imposing new store, fresh from the extensive remodeling which places it in the foremost rank of elegant city department stores, was thrown open for the formal opening, and with rich autumn decorations adding attraction, presented a metropolitan appearance that called forth admiration from many visitors.

For many years it has been the earnest desire of Craig Bros. to present to the ladies of this city and county, a millinery department in keeping with the other departments of this store, but owing to the inability to give adequate floor space to the project, it seemed an impossibility.

The recent remodeling of their building which added to the tremendous floor space already occupied, some 2000 square feet, provided admirably for the new section, and after being completely refurnished throughout, its presents an appearance without compare in this section of the state.

The special interest of the opening centered in the new department. It is furnished throughout in Early English and is equipped with a lighting system of the newest type. The paneled ceiling is of ivory and the walls in Robin's egg blue, furnishing a handsome setting for the magnificent stock of millinery gathered in it, and under the competent management of Miss Lulu Theobald, this department promises to be the most popular shopping place in Washington.

In connection with this department a modern Beauty Shop is in operation where expert manicuring, hair dressing, and facial massage are to be had. Mrs. Emilee Thornton is in charge of the Beauty Shop.

During the remainder of the week the ladies are cordially invited to pay a visit to the new section and see its offerings.

SAVE SEEDS FOR BIRDS

The melon seeds you can save this summer will preserve the life of many a wild bird next winter.

This is of such importance that the Audubon Educational board is offering four prizes to boys and girls of Ohio who will save the seeds of water melons, musk melons, sugar melons, cucumbers and squashes and agree to feed them to the birds next winter.

Conditions: Any Ohio boy or girl from the seventh grade down may compete—They must report through

SALESMANSHIP MAY BE TAUGHT

In connection with the other educational night school departments, to be controlled this fall and winter by the Y. M. C. A., may be added a salesmanship course, since an urgent demand for this feature has been broached. The demand, it would seem, arises from the fact that Washington has a large number of mercantile concerns, employing many salesmen, and these, almost to a man, are enthusiastically in favor of the project.

It was first planned to start the educational season with four departments, namely, mechanical and structural drawing, stenography, book-keeping and show card writing, with a promise of organizing other classes, including salesmanship, later, if it became advisable. It seems now that not only is a class in salesmanship in demand, but that if instituted, it will become the most popular of all.

If such a class is added it is probable that Secretary Patton will organize a supervising committee, composed of local business men, who will act as sponsors to the class. The course will be chosen from the best offered in the country, and under the direction of a competent experienced teacher.

ATTENTION SIR KNIGHTS.

MAIN STREET BRICK IS EXPECTED SOON

Contractors in charge of the work give verbal assurance that the paving brick, the lack of which has been tying up the Main street improvement, will be here the latter part of this week or the first of next and its arrival will be followed by the immediate resumption of work.

The cause given for the delay is the scarcity of brick, which is being supplied by the Trimble Brick Company. This company is also furnishing brick, or another grade, for the Leesburg pike paving. The last of the brick for this latter improvement will arrive this week and preparations are being made for the placing of it. Graham and Kinnear handle both contracts.

GOWNS LIKE THIS ARE ONLY FOR WOMEN WITH PERFECT SHOULDERS.

There is much that is worthy of note in this evening costume of pale satin. It illustrates the use which is being made of beading in adorning fall and winter evening costumes. Black and white beads are combined in achieving the wonderful bordered effects on this garment.

SPLENDID MALE QUARTETTE.

With Coburn's Greater Minstrels tonight at the Empire theatre, one of the feature musical offerings of the season is the Metropolitan Singing Four, the best quartette in minstrelsy. There probably is not a patron or lover of minstrelsy and vocal music whose preference would not be quoted in favor of this enjoyable form of musical entertainment. Lester Lucas, basso, whose powerful voice has been heard and enjoyed with this attraction in past seasons has been promoted to the position of interlocuter in the big new First Part production, in which capacity his pleasing personality, clean enunciation and dramatic ability individualize him as master of ceremonies. William Church, counter tenor, with a splendid and powerful voice having a range of "E" above high C, make him a star soloist and top tenor feature. "Billie" is also the comedian of the quartette as well and fills it capably. Justin McCarthy, Celtic tenor lead, and soloist, whose Swiss Yodels have been heard before with Manager Coburn and Joseph Maguire, robust baritone soloist, and the latest addition to this pleasing specialty. The solos, harmony numbers and comedy bits used this season by these singers demonstrate their right to the title claimed for them, and no patron of Coburn's Minstrels will be disappointed in the result of their combined efforts to please. Seats on sale at Baldwin's.

Treatment of Burns.
Don't thrust a burned foot or hand into cold water. It relieves for a moment, only to be followed by an increase of pain, peeling off of the cuticle and very frequently by ulceration of the wound. Don't tie up in a dry cloth; all woven material is porous and admits air. Don't drag off the clothing. If it must be removed, carefully cut it off, if that can be done without tearing the skin. Don't rub or cut off the hanging skin. Your object when called upon to treat a burn is at once to exclude air.
For this purpose nothing is better than oil of some sort. Paraffin is not a bad thing, or vaseline, or common olive oil, or lard and butter, if both be entirely without salt.

me a flea, will you? I'll give it you back in three minutes!"—London Tele-

MEMBERSHIP COMMITTEE OF Y. M. C. A. GETTING BUSY

Expects to Raise $275 This Week to Meet Expenses—Secretary Patton Addresses Meeting—Committee Will Take Care of Juniors, Unable to Pay Membership Fees.

"$275 this week." Such is the slogan adopted by the Y. M. C. A. membership committee Tuesday night at one of the most enthusiastic meetings ever held in connection with the Y. M. C. A. work here. In explanation he said that this committee, composed of some of Washington's most prominent business and professional men, is undertaking, with confident determination, to secure new memberships before the close of this week that will bring in $275 or more, to the association.

The action was taken following Secretary Patton's announcement in the meeting that the monthly expenses, unusually heavy this month because of insurance assessments, coal bills, and other demands outside the regular expense, would reach this amount.

Mr. Patton, in a talk to the committee called its attention to the fact that the membership is very low and suggested that the members make a strenuous personal campaign to increase the roll. He expressed himself as not in favor of a big membership campaign, with its attendant expenses, at this time, adding that he believed the results could be obtained in other, if less pretentious ways.

Another matter came before the membership committee Monday night, and although not quite in the committee's province was generously adopted by it. It was the matter of taking care of the young lads who are unable to pay for membership but who desire to belong to the association. There are several of these, it would appear, and immediately the matter was broached to the committee came the assurance that they would be taken care of.

A report will be given in the latter part of the week on the campaign.

BULLETINS

By Associated Press.

Amsterdam, September 22.—An aeroplane of unknown nationality dropped a bomb in Maestricht this morning, near the Brussels gate, according to a dispatch received here. No lives were lost but a big hole was torn in the ground; trees were broken; the doors of a nearby house were riddled and windows for a considerable distance, shattered. Automobiles were sent in pursuit of the aircraft but it disappeared, going south.

Paris, September 22.—In a dispatch from Nish, Serbia, dated Sunday, September 20, the correspondent of the Havas News Agency says the Austrians have been forced to retreat all along the entire front between Lioubova and Losnitza, and that they are being hotly pursued by the Serbian forces. The Serbians destroyed the bridges over the river Drina, but after suffering heavy losses, the Austrians succeeded in getting to the opposite bank.

STRIKES MINE AND 22 DROWN

By Associated Press.

Trebizond, Asia Minor, via London, Sept. 22.—Twenty-two persons lost their lives by drowning, as a result of the sinking of the British steamer Belgian King, near Cape Kureli, yesterday.

The Belgian King carried passengers and crew to the number of 120. Ninety-eight of them were saved by a Russian steamer. It is surmised this accident was due to a mine, but the real cause has not been revealed.

DEFEAT AUSTRIANS

By Associated Press.

London, September 22.—In a dispatch from Rome, the correspondent of the Star says Serbian and Montenegrin forces have occupied Samatevo, which was abandoned by the Austrians after an overwhelming defeat.

ERADICATE THE RAT!

A Disease Breeder and Carrier That Serves No Good Purpose.

Rats are dangerous. They have no legitimate business, nor can they serve any good purpose in any community. Sanitarians are well agreed that rats are a serious menace to health. They are so filthy in their habits as tenants of the sewers and as feeders on everything dirty and diseased that it is no wonder they are carriers of disease, parasites and plague infection.

That rats are afflicted with many diseases more than bubonic plague is confirmed by Dr. Rupert Blue, surgeon general of the United States public health service, who, speaking on this point, says: "Other infections of the rat are trematodes, or flukes; cestodes, or tapeworms; nematodes, or round worms; protozoa, insects and vegetable microbes." Of the rats examined in San Francisco 34 per cent were infested with tapeworms.

Plague is primarily a disease of the rat. It is communicated from the plague stricken rat to other rats and from rats to man by means of fleas, as the principal agent, yet it has been determined many times that handling a rat that has been dead of plague only a few hours gives the infection almost instantly. Two small boys while playing in an unused cellar found the body of a dead rat. The corpse was buried with unusual funeral honors. In forty-eight hours both were ill with bubonic plague. A laborer finding a sick rat on the wharf picked it up with the naked hand and threw it into the bay. He was seized three days later with plague. But the flea is the chief incubator. Fleas abandon a rat dead of plague and go in search of living beings who still have warm blood circulating in their veins. Biting man they inoculate into him the living virus which starts the disease.

Since plague is a disease due to rats and rat fleas and not to filth or dirty habits, there's only one thing to do to avoid plague, eradicate the rats. This can be done by making war on them with traps, poison and starvation, and by "rat proofing" against them; that is by building them out. As a result of the Chinatown plague epidemic in 1907, so efficient was the ratproof construction that followed, that rats and fleas were entirely "built out" of that part of the city.

Willie Wants to Know.

"Pa, how can guns kick when they have no legs?"

"Don't ask absurd questions."

"Guns haven't any legs, have they, pa?"

"Certainly not."

"Well, then, what's the use of their having breeches?"—Boston Transcript.

DR. MOON RECOVERING FROM EFFECTS OF FALL STATE SECRETARY HERE NEXT WEEK

Dr. O. C. Moon, well known local dentist, who has been suffering severely from the effects of a fall from a step ladder, sustained about a month ago, is able to be up and around again. He is, however, forced to use a cane and cannot, as yet, give full attention to his practice.

The accident occurred when the doctor was in the act of arranging some goods on a high shelf in his wife's millinery store. He was injured about the right hip.

POISONED BITE RESULTS FATALLY

A large family connection and many friends throughout the county and especially in the Buena Vista neighborhood, have been shocked and saddened to learn of the death of Mrs. Albert B. Haines, Sunday evening.

About three weeks ago Mrs. Haines was bitten on the limb by an old-fashioned sweet potato bug. The bite seemed to have been venomous and blood poisoning ensued, causing great suffering during the past week.

Four physicians from Buena Vista and this city were in consultation at the time that the death summons came.

Mrs. Haines was one of the most highly esteemed women of the Buena Vista vicinity, active in all church work and always helpful in benevolences, and will be greatly missed. A devoted mother, she leaves bereft a husband, four sons, Tipton, Eph, Mont and Austin, and two daughters, Mrs. Frances Patton and Mrs. Nina Binegar.

Funeral services will be held at the White Oak Chapel Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

BADLY CRIPPLED IN RUNAWAY

Lafe Reynolds, of the Plymouth pike, had a close call Monday evening, when he was found by T. P. Watts, of this city, badly crippled and lying in a ditch at the side of the road.

Mr. Reynolds had been helping Wm. Dice cut corn and at supper time started home driving a spirited horse with spring wagon.

Between the Dice home and the L. Baughn place, on the Plymouth pike, the horse became unmanageable, throwing its driver out and in its attempt to run itself was thrown and caught between the hind wheels.

The injured man had lain by the road side some little time when Mr. Watts, driving home from a business trip to Milledgeville, about six o'clock found him. Mr. Watts called the Baughn Bros. and with their assistance carried Mr. Reynolds to his bug-
